Integration Across Generations: Exploring the Educational, Occupational and Family Trajectories of Migrants

Collegio Carlo Alberto, Turin, Italy, April 7-10, 2025

The topic for the thirteenth edition of the ECSR-CA-NASP Spring School is Integration Across Generations: Exploring the Educational, Occupational, and Family Trajectories of Migrants. The School is promoted by the European Consortium of Sociological Research (ECSR), Collegio Carlo Alberto and by the Universities of Milan and Turin in the frame of the NASP, Network for the Advancement in Social and Political Studies. It provides high-quality training on current research on the integration of migrants into host societies, focusing on the educational, occupational and family trajectories of first- and second-generation migrants.

A limited number of doctoral students and young researchers will participate in a four-day, full-immersion course, including lectures on the key topics in the field – both conceptual and methodological –, workshops, and the opportunity to present their work and have it discussed by leading scholars in the field.

The School is organized by Nazareno Panichella (University of Milan, scientific coordinator), Filippo Barbera (Collegio Carlo Alberto and University of Turin), Camilla Borgna (University of Turin), Stefano Cantalini (University of Milan, deputy scientific coordinator), Tiziana Nazio (Collegio Carlo Alberto and University of Turin), Emanuela Struffolino (University of Milan), Francesca Tomatis (University of Milan) and Antonina Zhelenkova (University of Milan).

Lectures will be given and presentations discussed by Maurizio Ambrosini (University of Milan), Daniel Auer (Collegio Carlo Alberto and University of Mannheim), Camilla Borgna (University of Turin), Stefano Cantalini (University of Milan), Ayse Guveli (Warwick University), Are Skeie Hermansen (University of Oslo), Elina Kilpi-Jakonen (University of Turku), Eleonora Mussino (Stockholm University), Tiziana Nazio (Collegio Carlo Alberto and University of Turin), Nazareno Panichella (University of Milan), and Emanuela Struffolino (University of Milan).

Applications have to be sent by email (mito.school@unimi.it) by March 2, 2025, and should include: a) an abstract of the paper that will be presented (up to 500 words); b) a summary of the PhD thesis project or current research (up to 3 pages); c) a brief CV (one page).

Priority in admission will be given to students from Institutions that belong to the ECSR.

Admission to the School is free of charge. Admitted students will be provided hotel accommodation, all lunches and a social dinner. Other dinners and travel expenses to and from Turin will not be covered.
